FEED.

Smith Weaver of Moorefield is visiting friends here.

John Duncan returned from Millersburg Wednesday, after a few days' visit to friends.

Our election passed off very quietly Saturday, except a few skirmishes after closing of the polls.

Several of our boys met with accidents Sunday night—only three buggies were wrecked or upset within one-half mile distance. No one hurt.

To Our City Subscribers.

William O. Outten has charge of the delivery of THE LEDGER to all city subscribers, and he will make collection of the subscription accounts.

Orders should be given to him, or they may be left at the office for him.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly are requested to report to the office.

Leap Year Party.

A very enjoyable event was an impromptu leap-year party at the home of Miss Margaret Finch last night. The evening was spent in dancing. The ladies present were Misses Jennie Wood, Mamie Hooker, Belle Barkley, Rosa Pickett, Hattie Johnson, Alice Higginbotham, Lizzie Sadler, Mamie Wood, Lottie Berry, Ethelene Wall, Anna Scott and Margaret Finch; Miss Lida Berry, Pianist. The gentlemen present were Messrs. Oscar McDougle, Stanley Watson, James Barbour, Gordon Smoot, Harry Owens, Clarence Dobyns, Will Jenkins, C. Burgess Taylor, J. Banks Durrett and Will January.

A Coroner's Quandary.

By going on the bond of Mrs. Cora E. Campbell, who shot Miss Annie Wilson because she was in the company of her husband, Coroner Berry has placed himself in a peculiar position, which is causing much criticism in Louisville. His friends do not know in what light to regard his action on account of the remark which he made when questioned, that "it was a personal affair between him and the woman." Mrs. Campbell's victim is lying in a serious condition, the bullet having produced an abrasion of the skull, and a high fever has set in. If the girl dies, the question is being asked, what the Coroner, who is on the bond of Mrs. Campbell, will do about the inquest, especially in the light of his remark about the personal matter between himself and the woman. The bond was placed at $500, but no one would go her security except the Coroner.

SHE DIED ON EASTER SUNDAY.

Mrs. Lettie Lemon Escott Passes Away After Two Weeks Illness.

Mrs. Lettie Lemon Escott died in Louisville at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning after an illness of less than two weeks.

Mrs. Escott was the daughter of Mr. George W. Lemon of Milton, Trimble county, Ky., who died about twelve years ago after a visit to the West, where he was largely interested in real estate. Her mother, Mrs. Mary Payne Lemon, was the daughter of Thomas Y. Payne of Maysville, representative of one of the most noted families in Kentucky. After the death of her father, her mother having died some years before, Mrs. Escott lived with her uncle, Howard Smith, of Louisville, until her marriage, April 7th, 1885, with Mr. James S. Escott. Mr. Escott is a nephew of Mr. W. N. Haldeeman, and is general book-keeper for the Fourth National Bank. His wife was the sister of Mrs. John B. Portwood and Mrs. A. M. Offutt.

Mrs. Escott was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and was one of its most earnest workers. She was naturally of a bright, cheerful disposition, but her religious convictions were deep and strong.

The funeral took place at 3:30 Monday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Hemphill conducted the services, and interment was at Cave Hill. The pall-bearers were Bruce Haldeeman, Charles Warren, Howard W. Hunter, George Caspari, William Mundy, Wm. A. Caplinger, Thomas Satterwhite and Shackelford Miller.

Real Estate Transfers.

F. M. Tolle and wife to Richard A. Carr, undivided one-half interest in Magnolia Mills and other real estate owned by Carr & Tolle in the city of Maysville; consideration, $1,800.

Wilson N. Hill and wife to Phillip Fist, house and lot off old Baptist Institute lot on Fifth street; consideration, $2,150.

Officers Elected.

At the annual election of officers last night, Canton Maysville No. 2, P. M., chose—

Captain—William H. Cox.
Lieutenant—John T. Parker.
Ensign—William N. Smith.
Clerk—John W. Thompson.
Accountant—Harry Taylor.
The installation will take place third Monday in May.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Isabella A. Keefe, the estimable wife of the late David Keefe, former residents of Maysville, died at 1 o'clock yesterday morning at her home in Covington. The funeral will be at the residence at 4:30 this afternoon, after which the remains will be brought here and laid beside her late husband in the Mason County Cemetery. Besides a daughter, Mrs. Charles C. Dobyns, Mrs. Keefe leaves many mourning friends in Maysville.

They Generally Get There.

A letter was received at the Postoffice this morning for a citizen of Vanceburg now staying in Maysville, after a sojourn in the South. The letter was originally mailed at Vanceburg on the 25th of March, addressed to the gentleman at New Orleans, La.; it was received at New Orleans on the 27th; forwarded on the 29th from New Orleans to Memphis, Tenn., where it arrived on the 30th; failing of delivery at the latter place, it was again sent to New Orleans, arriving April 5th, where it was delivered to and opened by a gentleman of exactly the same name, properly indorsed and handed back to the postal authorities who on the 15th returned it to Vanceburg. It reached the latter place on the 18th, yesterday, and this morning it was delivered to the proper owner in this city. How many miles do you think this letter traveled and how much time do you imagine was consumed in the handling and stamping it, all for two cents! It contains fourteen dating-marks and indorsements besides the original one.
